

Mid-week Afternoon Service

Tuesday 12 May at 2.30pm

A mid-week service of worship in the upper hall at Mayfield Salisbury. The service will have a pilgrimage theme and will include hymns, readings, prayers and music. We will remain seated throughout and the service will be followed by tea and a time of fellowship. All are welcome, but the afternoon will be particularly appreciated by those members of our church community who are less mobile.

Lindisfarne

Saturday 23 May

An all day family pilgrimage to Holy Island. We shall travel by coach to Northumbria. There will be a chance to walk across to the island either on the causeway or the sands, and a family service of Holy Communion before returning. The Holy Island website gives more details of all that is available to do and explore while there: www.lindisfarne.org.uk

The Bield

Sunday 14 June

A day retreat for our youth ministry team which will include worship, reflection, silence, and a chance to walk in the beautiful surroundings of the Bield. The Bield at Blackruthven is near Perth, about an hour's drive from Edinburgh. Their web site gives more details. www.bieldatblackruthven.org.uk

Edinburgh Garden Pilgrimage

Tuesday 19 May at 2.30pm

This pilgrimage will be held at the home of Eilie and Douglas Blackwood, 7 Pitsligo Road, Edinburgh EH10 7GH. There will be quiet reflection, prayer and the celebration of Holy Communion. This will be followed by a time of fellowship with tea and cake. The afternoon will be particularly appreciated by members of our church community who require a little help. Transport will be available.

Inchcolm Abbey

Wednesday 10 June

A pilgrimage to Inchcolm Abbey on the Island of Inchcolm in the Firth of Forth. We will be joined by members of other churches in the area and a joint service will be held in the refectory at the abbey. We shall sail to Inchcolm from South Queensferry on the Maid of the Forth. Participants will require a picnic lunch and stout foot wear.

Glasgow

Saturday 26 September

This is an all day pilgrimage. We shall travel by coach. The day will include a visit to Glasgow Cathedral to explore its spiritual history, a visit to the St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art, and a visit to the grave of Revd George Matheson in Glasgow Necropolis.

North Berwick Saturday 3 October

An all day pilgrimage for the Kirk Session to the Abbey Church, North Berwick. The day will focus on the recently published Church of Scotland booklet 'Eldership', which explores a wide range of topics of interest to Elders in today's world, and includes prayers written by Scott.

Pilgrimage

The most important journey we make in life is the inner journey. That journey can be greatly enriched and blessed when we open ourselves to the possibility of encountering the Holy in sacred places and in those we meet there and on the way. It is a real joy to me that pilgrimage is core to our self-understanding at Mayfield Salisbury. I wish you peace and adventure on your journey.

Scott S McKenna

BOOKING

Places on these pilgrimages need to be booked in advance. This can be done either by signing up on a list provided in the vestibule at Mayfield Salisbury or by contacting the organiser. Intimations about this will appear in the Orders of Service on Sunday mornings, but organisers will also be contacting members directly.

TRANSPORT COSTS for all Pilgrimages will be paid for by the Ian McCallum Fund. Ian was an elder for over 50 years, many of them here at Mayfield Salisbury. The Fund was set up by his family in his memory.
