Trinity Sunday

This is the big lie that the world tells us: the world is connected by trade agreements, electronic banking, computer networks, shipping lanes and the seeking of profit – nothing else. This is the truth of God: creation is a holy web of relationship, a gift meant for all; it vibrates with the pain of all its parts; its destiny is joy. Julie Polter, From 'Sojourners'.

Prayer Approach, Praise, Confession and The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Music: Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky (1840 to 1893)

Blessed angel-spirits offer praise undying, ever-crying Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth. Saints and martyrs praise thy name, Trinity life-giving, earth-borne sorrow leaving before thy throne, ever-crying Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth. Father omnipotent, mighty in glory, Christ thy Son, our Saviour, who died that we might live, Holy Spirit, mystic dove, dwelling with us evermore. We praise thee, Blessed Trinity. With the Angels' sacred hymn, all thy might proclaiming, with the mystic cherubim in songs of praise we join, Holy, Holy, Holy, join we all in songs of praise for ever; Hallelujah, Lord God of Sabaoth.

THIS MORNING'S CHOIR MUSIC The quiet and understated introit is a short movement from the major work 'The Liturgy of St John Chrysostom' (Opus 31). Rather than use a direct translation of the Russian, A M Henderson (a former professor of Music at Glasgow University) has cleverly set an appropriate Psalm verse. The opening sets out the full text, which is then repeated with a solo soprano descant added.

The Cherubic Hymn, 'Izhe Heruvimi,' is a central part of the Orthodox Liturgy for Eucharist being sung during the Great Entrance. Tchaikovsky was the first composer to create choral compositions from parts of the Liturgy, beginning with his setting of the 'Liturgy of St John Chrysostom.' He later produced a set of nine sacred pieces with no less than three further settings of the Cherubic Hymn of which today's anthem in F major, is the first. The first three verses start very quietly and increase in intensity. There are straight repeats until the second half of the third verse which then leads into a fourth with increased tempo and dynamic, bringing us to vigorous 'alleluias' to finish.
